

Addendum to Nominating Committee Report

Kim Martin Sadler Department of Church and Ministry Class of 2014 (3 year term)

Kim Martin Sadler is the Editorial Director of The Pilgrim Press/United Church Press where she is responsible for acquiring and developing religious books for the five thousand plus congregations of the United Church of Christ. A strong advocate of public service, Kim served on the Board of Directors of the Ohio Conference from 2003 to 2009. Additionally, from 2003 to 2011, she served as the chairperson of the Ohio Conference Racial Ethnic Empowerment Committee.

Kim is a member of Mt. Zion Congregational Church, United Church of Christ in Cleveland where her husband, Paul Hobson Sadler, Sr. serves as Senior Pastor. At Mt. Zion, Kim shares her skills and talents on numerous ministries. Kim and Paul have two adult children, Robin aka Bijou Star, an on air personality with Radio One's Z107.9 FM. station in Cleveland and Paul Jr., an entrepreneur and owner of YBM clothing. Kim is also "Nana" to her first grandchild, Paul Hobson Sadler, III.